

Lighting Crimping / Technology

Technical description

- Crimping and lighting technology is performed according to UIC and EN norms, in order to ensure the best result and the maximum resistance during the railway vehicle life.
- Crimping technology is applied to all the electrical devices that Clagi-Coplass makes for rail application.
- Lighting technology is performed by Clagi-Coplass for the following range of product:

Passenger area

Passenger area

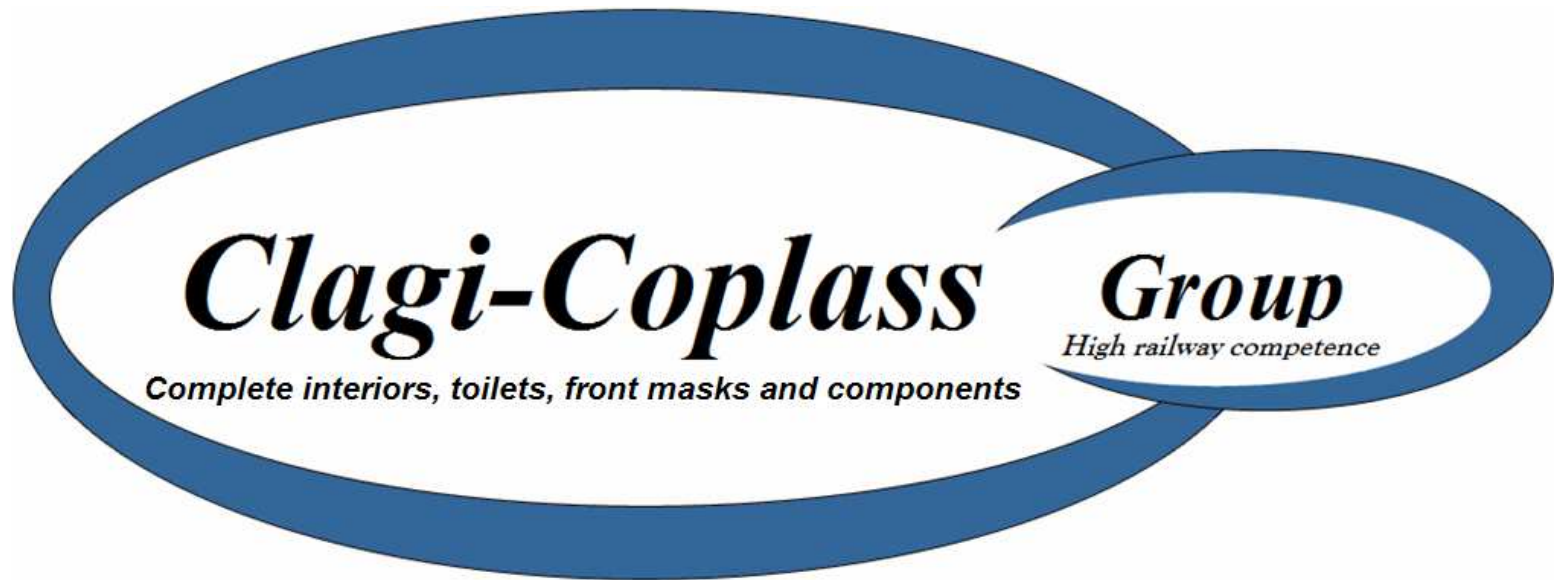

Front mask external lighting

Drive Cab area

Toilet cabin compartment

Thank you to partner Clagi-Coplass, the best solution for your composite products needs.